

No.14 How to... access Taylor & Francis Online

The Taylor & Francis Online database holds journals published by T&F, Routledge and CRC Press covering a variety of subject areas including: the arts, education, engineering, health & social care and social sciences.

This database can be access via iPAC, the LRC's Moodle pages (Online Databases) or directly via your ATHENS account.

The screenshot shows the Taylor & Francis Online homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the logo, 'Taylor & Francis Online', and links for 'Log in', 'Register', and 'Cart'. Below the navigation bar is a large banner with the text 'Discover. Learn. Share.' and a search bar containing the placeholder text 'Enter keywords, authors, DOI etc'. The search bar is circled in orange. Below the search bar, it says '3,600,000+ articles'. Below the banner is a link 'Browse by your specialist subject' which is also circled in orange. Below this link is a grid of subject categories: Area Studies, Earth Sciences, Health and Social Care, Museum and Heritage Studies, Arts, Economics, Finance, Business & Industry, Humanities, and Physical Sciences.

On the homepage, enter your search term or phrase in the box OR brose by subject, from the list at the bottom of the screen.

The screenshot shows the search results page for 'library induction'. The search results are for 'library induction' with 44,623 results. The 'Refine your search' section is circled in orange, and the 'Publication date' filter is also circled in orange. The search results list a case report titled 'Library e-induction: alleviating anxiety with digital doughnuts: a case study' by Timothy Collinson & Alison Williams. The search results also list a research article titled 'Theft and Mutilation of Library Materials in Nigerian Academic Libraries'.

Ensure you tick the Refine box for: Only content I have full access to

You will then be left with a series of articles displaying either a green tick  or orange open padlock symbol .

You have full access to these types of article.

You may refine your search further, by selecting the PUBLICATION DATE option to the left of the screen.

3. Click on the title of the article, then select PDF to read the text in full.
